Union Sinking Fundoff'd at .. 1 19 STOCKS The stock market was active but weak and under a pressure to sell prices declined sharply throughout the entire list. The failure of C. A. Sweet & Co., of Boston, had a depressing effect here, considerable stock for their account being sold on this market. The decline in prices in the general list for the day ranged from 1@32 per cent, Louisville & Nashville leading. Among the specialties there were some wide fluctuations, Memohia & Charleston clo-ing at 8je lower that on Saturday, Richmond & Danville 15c and Richmond & West Point 44c.

Following are the closing bids.

HE WILL LIVE

Stroebech, Who is Stortenbercker, Not Killed by the Robber's Bullet.

The excitement caused in Keg Creek township, Ia., east of Council Bluffs, by the attempted robbery and murder of a farmer at that place, is somewhat subsiding. Constable Edgerton, of this city, returned yesterday from a trip to Silver City, near the scene of the crime, and gave a reporter of THE BEE several interesting particulars concerning the condition of affairs there, and the evidences which indicate that Joe Botts, the negro now in jail here, was the man who did the shooting.

It appears that the reports published in the newspapers concerning the crime have been of an incorrect nature. The name of the man shot is Theodore Stortenbercker, in stead of Henry Stoebech, and instead of being in the land of the invisible, he is still alive and getting better. The ball was extricated and was shown to Constable Edgerton yesterday, and found to be the same in size and appearance of those taken from Bott's revolver which was obtained from a relative in Omaha after his arrest.

The partners of Botts in the affair are pretry conclusively believed to be Murray a father of the Murray arrested here sometime ago by Detective Hazen for robberies from the B. & M. company—and a young man named Wilson. These two men went into the house first, but after they entered Botts went in and is supposed to have done the business. Stortenbercker was up stairs when the men demanded the money from his wife and the facts as stated go to show that he played the coward in the fullest extent by jumping out of the window and running for dear life. He was caught by the robbers, who thought he had the boodle on his person, and carried back to the house, when the shooting occurred. After the affair all three men struck out for the railroad, but Botts alone succeeded in getting the train. He came to the transfer depot and across on the last dummy train.

A vigorous search is being made for Murray and his partner but as yet they have not been caught.

MASONIC HALL.

Mrs. Latey and the Æsthetic Sisters Receive an Ovation.

The entertainment at Masonic hall last evening under the auspices of the young ladies of the Presbyterian church, was one of the pleasant little episodes of the season. The programme published yesterday was carried out to the letter, and was admirable in all its features. The piano solos by Mrs. Funk were artistic and beautiful, and were received with warm expressions of admiration. tableaux which accompanied it were excellent, and the latter each in its turn was heartily encored. The great attraction of the evening however, was the singing by Mrs. H L. Latey, formerly of this city. Mrs. Latey appeared three times, an each time was called by an audience who would not take no for an answer Her voice has lost none of its old time purity and sweetness, and in many respects her singing has been greatly improved. Her response to the first encore, "The Last Lay of the Minstrel," was the one which pleased the audience most, and it left them all in tears. The song "Tender and True" was scarcely less beautiful, and in fact all her selections for the evening were unexceptionable. HAPPY HEBREWS.

They Celebrate the Anniversary of Haman's Overthrow. The orthodox Israelites of this city, as elsewhere, Sunday celebrated the feast of Purim, or the anniversary of their deliverence from the fate to which Haman had consigned them under the decree obtained by him from King Ahasuerus. This festival always brings suggestions of the beautiful Esther, who interceded with the king in behalf of her people, and it is always celebrated with feasting and rejoicing. Purim always comes on the fourth Sunday before Faster. A reception was given S. m. day at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bernstein, on Capitol av nue, near the Creighton house, which was largely attended. There was music, dancing and feasting and everybody had a grand good time. Among those present were L. Harris and wife, of Council Bluffs; L. Hireabout three weeks.

Hon. Thomas L. Kimball, assistant general manager, of the Union Pacific, and wife left for New York Sunday in the splendid special car, No. 12. They will be about two weeks. Omaha, and many others.
